

The school campus includes modern classrooms, science laboratories, computer labs, and a well-equipped library.

Students have access to sports fields, indoor recreational areas, and study spaces.

High-speed internet connectivity is available throughout the campus.

The library provides academic resources, digital materials, and quiet study areas.

Specialized facilities support science, technology, engineering, arts, and mathematics education.

All facilities are maintained to provide a safe and productive learning environment.