

Parents and guardians play an important role in supporting student success.

Regular communication between home and school is strongly encouraged.

Parents should monitor attendance, academic progress, and homework completion.

Parent-teacher meetings are scheduled throughout the year.

Visitors must report to reception before entering academic areas.

Concerns regarding academic or behavioral matters should be directed to the appropriate staff member.

The school values positive partnerships with families.